University Health
December 18, 2020 · 🌐

Our RN, Ashley Cravatt, was the first person to receive her COVID-19 vaccine today. "It's a sense of relief, honestly... I really hope this will put a decline on the amount of people getting sick."

We can't thank our team enough for their dedication to our patients and our community throughout this challenging pandemic. Getting vaccinated will protect them so they can continue to take care of all of us.

👍❤️ 390   5 Comments 38 Shares

👍 Like	💬 Comment	↪ Share

Most Relevant ▾

Alberto Alanis
Can a liver transplant patient get the vaccine 💉
Like · Reply · 46w

      View 2 more replies

Write a comment...